An Ink Sans
Coloring Book

Hey, Creators!

Where do I begin? I'm at a loss for words to express how delighted I am to bring this passion project to you all. This coloring book holds a special place in my heart for several reasons: as an artist, a mental health worker, and someone who finds joy and comfort in little pieces of nostalgia. To whoever finds this coloring book in their hands, this was made for you! I truly hope it brings a sense of peace, cures some artblock, or serves as a step forward!

I'm beyond thrilled that a mental health charity was chosen by our contributors — it's something many of us struggle with, and in a world that often rewards conflict, kindness and tolerance aren't passive acts. Sometimes, we forget to regard the humanity in others. Love and creation, in its most honest form, is to persevere even when it's difficult. It warms my heart to see how many of our contributors jumped at the opportunity to draw for charity. It reminds me of the natural inclination to do good, that so many different people can come together to make something wonderful to support a great cause. The reception and enthusiasm has been overwhelming. I'm eternally grateful.

The lovely artists of this Zine did a phenomenal job, and it was such a rewarding experience to work with so many inspiring and hardworking creators. A special thank you to mods Sol and Puru for their tireless work. This couldn't be possible without everyone behind the project, and most importantly, it couldn't be possible without you, dear artist.

I hope this Zine sparks inspiration. Keep on creating!
